NATIVE SONS OF GOLDEN WEST DAY.

Sonoma Parlor Plans to Prepare a Site in Sonoma's Plaza for the Bear Flag Monument.

At a regular meeting of Sonoma Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, held last Monday evening, a committee was appointed and plans perfected for a big "Native Sons Day" in this city on Thursday, October 30th, on which occasion the entire membership of the Parlor will turn out with picks and shovels and with the assistance of some fifty or more teams that have been promised for the occasion will fill in and bring up to grade that portion of the Plaza which the City Trustees have so generously turned over to the Parlor for a Bear Flag monument site.

City Engineer Lewis has of late been at work surveying and setting grade stakes while the Monument Committee has had a crew of men excavating a pit in the canyon just north of the city, from which the earth will be taken to make the necessary fill. It is planned to set out the plot in lawn at the proper time and early in the spring active work on the monument will be commenced.

Plans are now being prepared and a beautiful design of the monument is on display in Clewe's store show window.

As before stated Thursday, October 30th, has been selected by the committee in charge as "Native Sons Day." The following committee was appointed for securing teams for that day and parties having teams and desiring to assist in this work are kindly requested to communicate with the committee. Those names follow: M. E. Cummings, chairman; J. P. Serres, Chas. Groskopf, Jos. Kiser and John Picetti.

A committee to provide shovels was appointed as follows: F. J. Hansen, chairman; Philip Bill, Jr., E. C. Campbell, Leonard Thomas and Fred Heiberg.

The committee on Teams will also arrange with a delegation of ladies from the various organizations of our valley to provide a fine mid-day luncheon in the Plaza. BLACK POINT CUT- OFF AND STATE HIGHWAY.

Engineer West of State Highway Commission Goes Over Proposed Route and is More Than Favorably Impressed

Engineer West of the State Highway Commission went over the proposed Black Point Cut-off last Sunday. He was accompanied by a committee of the El Verano Development Association and the trip was made in the touring cars of Dr. A. M. Thomson and H. H. Grance. Among those in the party were Engineer West, Mayor M. E. Cummings, Jas. Baines and Thos. Baines, the President and Secretary respectively of the El Verano Development Association, Wm. J. Kearney, Dr. E. L. Parmore, Paul Thomson, H. H. Grance and Joe Andrieux.

The proposed route from Sonoma via the Foster ranch was gone over and Engineer West made many notes in his book on the route. He was very favorably impressed, so much so that it is highly probable he will favor the building of the State highway through this valley via the Black Point Cut-off.

After the trip the party were given a banquet at Boyes Springs by Dr. Parmore.

Before taking his departure Engineer West declared it was his intention to again visit Sonoma at no distant day and again go over the proposed route.

Morning worship at 11 a. m.

Somehow a man becomes informed about the normal beauty of the character of Jesus and by it becomes a follower. His chief concern is to obey orders. He does not think of being worthy of receiving a good position in eternity. He does not look from the unwholesome position of the man who disobeys and will take his chance. The Christian has no chance he simply toes the mark and by that gets a certainty. The followers of Christ are Christ like. He dies daily in obedience to the Master that commands. Take up thy cross and follow me. I want to talk about the relation of the Christian to society on Sunday morning.

Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.

The attractive God is the God of goodness. When a man believes, his belief is more powerful than any explosive man has ever discovered. The greatest effort man ever made, who does not believe it, has no power to be compared to it. When you have the belief, it is not optional with you whether you use it or not. You cannot help using it. You cannot have a salvation that does not save. Some think they see Jesus, but if it does not make you opposed to sin, the chances are that you are deceived. Come and let us think about this.

T. M. Price, Pastor.

Let us Bond for a New Grammar School Building.

Much interest is being manifested in the proposition recently initiated by the Index-Tribune of bonding our district for a new Grammar school building. When it is taken into consideration that the valuation of the property in the Sonoma School District is upward of $1,000,000, about equally divided between the city and the rural portion of the district, one can readily see that bonds to the amount of $25,000, the sum generally considered as being necessary to construct and equip a first class building, would be but a small item to the individual taxpayer, especially when issued to run a period of say twenty years and paid off in annual installments. The Trustees should immediately call an election. The condition of the present building is deplorable. The children of our community are deserving of not only the very best educational advantages, but should be properly and safely housed as well.

The X-Ray Gown.

Backward, turn backward, oh time in thy flight
Give us a girl whose skirts are not tight;
Give us a girl any old age
Who don't make the street a vaudeville stage;
Give us a girl, but whatever you do
Dress her in skirts that the sun can't shine through.

The Political Situation in California and the Republican Party.

The San Francisco Argonaut of the 18th inst., in discussing the political situation in California as it applies to the Republican party, has this to say among other things:

"The situation in California develops slowly. While there has been a world of talk within the Progressive organization nobody yet knows what's going to happen. Governor Johnson, whose ambitions for a presidential nomination are inordinately developed, still declares himself in favor of registration under the Progressive name. He is for regarding the new party as an established thing and for standing devotedly for it. Yet his determination is not sufficient to cause him to burn all his bridges behind him. In the end and under the pressure of his associates—and under the influence of developments at the East—he will probably attempt to re-enter and capture the Republican organization. State Senator Boynton frankly declares that he will register not as a Progressive, but as a Republican. Assemblyman Bill Scott is of the same mind. Likewise Ralph Hathorn, late Progressive candidate for district attorney; also Supervisor Byron Marzly. There is to be a Progressive convention to consider the question and it is a good guess that it will determine upon Republican registration under an attempt to control the party organization.

"Governor Johnson has yet to determine whether his chances would be promoted by election to the Senate or re-election to the governorship. Chester Rowell of Fresno himself looks toward the Senate, and he thinks, not unnaturally, that Johnson should run for the governorship. Poor old Pardee, who has never recovered from the grouch which his failure for re-nomination in 1906 developed, would like to have another try at the governorship, and he, too, feels that Johnson should step aside and try for the senatorship. Lieutenant Governor Wallace, whose ambitions are modest wishes to retain his present place, urges Johnson for the governorship because he thinks it would advance his own plans. Frank Heney, who is a hot candidate for the senatorship, is likewise a hot advocate of Johnson for governorship. In fact everything Heney does is on the hot order. There is a widespread notion among the Progressives that Heney will not insist upon his own candidacy if Johnson goes for the senatorship, but there is no certainty as to this. In the southern part of the state, the original stronghold of Progressivism, the movement languishes. Many, if not most of those who followed the Bull Moose intend to return to the Republican fold. Many there would like to be rid of Johnson altogether. A Progressive conference to occur some time next month will probably determine what the policy of the Progressive leaders is to be. That the leaders will be able to control the rank and file is a question which no conference can determine. It is to be remembered that repudiation of leadership is one of the fixed habits of Progressivism. Those who broke away from the Republican organization to follow the Progressive movement may now find it as easy to leave the affiliation and return to the old."

To the Victors Belong the Spoils.

So proclaimed Andrew Jackson during his second term as President in 1833 to 1837. In our humble opinion "Old Hickory" was dead right in so expressing himself and it is a good rule for Republicans to go by as well as Democrats.

This reminds us that Chas. O. Dunbar, part owner and one of the editors of the Santa Rosa Press Democrat, a newspaper that did yeoman service for Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic standard bearer in the last Presidential election, has announced himself as an aspirant for Postmaster of Santa Rosa. Although not training with Mr. Dunbar in his political affiliations we have no hesitancy in saying he ought to have the office, even though a good, true and tried Republican has to step down and out to let him in. Dunbar did more than his share toward putting the national administration of affairs in the hands of the Democratic party and he surely ought to be rewarded by President Wilson, when it is taken into consideration that aside from party fealty he is in every way eminently qualified for the position.

Neat Sum Netted for Public Library—The Prize Winning Babies.

The Baby Contest was a most wonderful—an unqualified success: a volume of physiological knowledge to mothers and therefore of great benefit to children. At the outset, many had smiled—doubtful that in a town so small as our own, such an effort would be accorded a sufficient amount of support. But those who were skeptical are fully satisfied that the Better Baby Contest was the very best, the biggest, the most desirable movement ever undertaken in Sonoma, and the Library Trustees—smilingly happy—are being showered with congratulations and commendation.

Friday afternoon Sonoma presented a veritable gala appearance, the streets suggesting "circus day," when parents bring in delighted little ones "to see the show." Such a sight! It was wonderful, truly! Citizens of Sonoma Valley, when next you blazon forth to the world that lies beyond our borders the marvelous resources and products of free and vine the wonder and healthfulness of climate of this sun-kissed Italy of the West, remember to add that our greatest inducement to the home-seeker is the perfection attained by the babies who blossom in this God blessed, nature-endowed vale. Recount that memorable October day when Union Hall was taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the concourse assembled to pay tribute to the Babyhood of Old Sonoma and suburban towns.

The work proceeded without delay, the doctors realizing that to complete examinations before night fall necessitated speedy service. Dr. A. M. Thomson directed, while Drs. Jackson Temple and Elizabeth Yates of Santa Rosa, Dr. Mable Gungung of Eldridge, and Dr. Irving C. Gobar of San Francisco were examining physicians. Capable, untiring service was rendered doctors and mothers by those who assisted as nurses, viz: Mesdames Geo. Breitenbach, Minnie Bridges and A. M. Thomson.

When the contest closed and the work of judging taken in hand, examining doctors encountered a formidable array of astonishing percentages. Many, many children, boys and girls, scored high in the nineties—96, 97 and 98 per cent. Score cards were carefully looked over and percentages recounted before decisions could be reached. Even then, it was difficult, so close was the contest.

When decisions were announced it was Martin McCallen Hill, the 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill of Boyes Springs, who bore the distinction of being the most perfect baby boy, and to whom was awarded the elegant silver cup presented by Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W.

Rowena Severn, the winsome baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Haven, of Sonoma, carried off honors as the most perfect girl baby, and was given the other silver cup, presented by the Native Sons.

The percentage scored by Edwin L. Burmester of El Verano, ranked him second most perfect boy. A beautiful gold ring was awarded Edwin L.

Capable, untiring service was rendered doctors and mothers by those who assisted as nurses, viz: Mesdames Geo. Breitenbach, Minnie Bridges and A. M. Thomson.

When the contest closed and the work of judging taken in hand, examining doctors encountered a formidable array of astonishing percentages. Many, many children, boys and girls, scored high in the nineties—96, 97 and 98 per cent. Score cards were carefully looked over and percentages recounted before decisions could be reached. Even then, it was difficult, so close was the contest.

When decisions were announced it was Martin McCallen Hill, the 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill of Boyes Springs, who bore the distinction of being the most perfect baby boy, and to whom was awarded the elegant silver cup presented by Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W.

Rowena Severn, the winsome baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Haven, of Sonoma, carried off honors as the most perfect girl baby, and was given the other silver cup, presented by the Native Sons.

The percentage scored by Edwin L. Burmester of El Verano, ranked him second most perfect boy. A beautiful gold ring was awarded Edwin L.

Ida Louise, three months old, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al. H. Entleman, was judged second most perfect girl, and presented with a gold necklace.

J. H. Edward Stanley and James LeGay McElenny fifth highest babies with a score of 98.5 each to their credit, were awarded silver souvenir spoons, initialed and in-crimed.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sverowsky, of Sonoma, are the proud parents of two prize-winning children. Joy, their two-year-old daughter, scored the highest percentage in Class 4, while Master Arter, aged four years and seven months, ranked best in his class. Each receive a silver spoon.

Olga and Roman Yarosz won silver souvenir spoons as best twins contesting, Olga with a percentage of 99 and her brother Roman 98.

A silver souvenir spoon was awarded beautiful Lois Viola Nelson for the fattest baby. If dainty Lois had but dropped a few pounds from her dimpled body, she'd been in line for a prize for correct proportions.

In the beauty contest, Mrs. J. H. Weise of Glen Ellen, Miss Mary McAndrews of San Francisco, Mrs. M. H. Rowell and Mr. S. Woodworth of Sonoma and Mr. Collins of El Verano, reluctantly passed judgment. They finally capitulated to the charms of Dorothy Frances Kirkman of El Verano, and the manly, fine face of Walter F. Norrbom, as prettiest girl and boy. Each received a ring.

In the evening the hall was crowded and a splendid musical and literary program was presented. Vocal solos were pleasingly rendered by Misses Nancy Bates and Ramona Granice and Messrs. M. H. Rowell and A. H. Jansen. A delightful quartette was given by Messdames R. Hotz, J. A. Kinsella,

J. McElenny and Lulu Emparan. Mrs. M. H. Rowell assisted as accompanist. The amusing comedy "A Pair of Lunatics" was presented in splendid style by Miss Gladys Simmons and A. H. Jansen, after which dancing was inaugurated, and continued until nearly two a. m. J. A. Picetti officiated as floor manager, and fine music was furnished by Pauli-Gottenberg orchestra.

On behalf of the Board of Library Trustees, its splendidly-capable, indefatigable president, Mr. Jesse R. Prestwood, expressed gratitude and deep appreciation to all who had assisted. The mothers, especially, were thanked, as prime factors in insuring the success of the contest; the doctors, too, for gratuitous services; the untiring nurses; the fraternalties, whose generous contributions provided prizes; the talent, and the many, many ladies and gentlemen who assisted in various ways.

The proceeds, after noon and evening will net about $125.
